3rd INTERNATIONAL INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE

on

'Future of Equalities, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) in South Asia and Beyond'

EQUALITIES, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

DATE

MAY 21 - 22, 2022

VENUE

SDSB, LUMS

CONFERENCE SCOPE

Our focus at this interdisciplinary conference is to explore the links between various gender and identity categories and economic participation, organisational culture, job satisfaction, organisational performance, entrepreneurship, leadership and management. We are also interested in understanding the impact of globalisation, public policy, social movements and social norms on the intersection between gender, work and society. The conference will present an interdisciplinary platform for participants to analyse and critique recent trends, innovations, and conditions related to gender, work and society, broadly defined. We invite full papers, developing papers and case studies on the conference theme.

- Critical approaches to understanding how and why we 'do' gender and diversity in the workplace
- Postcolonial critiques on EDI
- Diversity, class and social movements
- Links and gaps between diversity and inclusion
- Education and employment – connecting the missing dots
- Diversity and family business
- Harassment and violence at the workplace
- Gender identity and expression
- EDI and sustainable development
- Diversity and entrepreneurship in the Asian context
- Gender, space, and organisation
- Gender, organisations and public policy
- Gender, Money & Management: Understanding the intersection of gender, accounting and finance
- Aspiring leaders: perceptions of gender equality in managerial pipelines in South Asia
- Gendered intersections: culture, ethnicity, class and religion in the workplace
- EDI and leadership challenges
- Religious and ethnic minorities inclusiveness: issues and challenges
